

Borough of Blairsville
Indiana County
Pennsylvania
Ordinance Number 688

An ordinance relating to the levy of a tax for the support of a free, public, non-sectarian library and establishing of those rates based on current re-assessed values established in the year 2016 on all taxable properties within the Borough of Blairsville.

Whereas, an election was legally authorized and held in the Borough of Blairsville on the 6th of November 1945 establishing the levy of one mill of tax on all taxable property in the Borough of Blairsville for the maintenance and support of the Blairsville Public Library.

Whereas, all taxable property were reassessed in the County of Indiana in 2016.

Whereas, the equivalent millage rate based on the one mill levy with the new re-assessment tax base is .15 mills beginning in 2016.

Whereas, this reduction in the millage rate will maintain the current funding level to the Blairsville Public Library and further future funding levels will be maintained with the value of the taxable property base of the Borough of Blairsville.
